

Consultancy support service for NCIA

The project

COUNTRY: Afghanistan
CLIENT: NATO
STARTING DATE: 2014
DURATION: ongoing project

Context & Objectives

NATO Communication and Information Agency (NCIA) provides high quality end to end Communications and Information Systems services to its security missions in Afghanistan known as Resolute Support Missions (RSM, former ISAF).

Main objectives:

- Support maintain and secure NATO systems
- Train NATO and Military staff on the NATO systems

Perimeter

- Critical environment
- Defense Industry
- IT
- Telecoms

GLOBAL Technologies role

GLOBAL Technologies is a Contractor to NATO in Afghanistan for the provision of:

- Systems and Networks administration and support
- Help desk support to NATO and Military staff
- Cyber Security of NATO systems
- Training on the NATO systems
- Team management

Business results

Non confidential results:

- Improved Communications and Information Systems and Networks
- Improvement of the overall NATO security, incident management and project management
- Highly trained users

Key benefits for the client

- Demonstrates the highest level of flexibility, security and confidentiality in providing the level of service required
- High Level, Internationally qualified Senior Experts
- Improved support, management, operation and maintenance of NATO systems & infrastructures in difficult environment areas and military conflicts

CONTACT